Yukon Employees Union is seeking a collaborative, professional, dedicated individual to represent its 4000+ members throughout the Yukon and assist in the training and development of shop stewards.

Reporting to the Executive Director, you will be providing advice and support to members, shop stewards and colleagues. You will be required to form and maintain collaborative working relationships with employer representatives, despite opposing views or changing interests. You will need to be able to manage a busy caseload covering a variety of labour relations issues in an often-hectic environment where work priorities can change any moment.

In order to be successful in this position, you will require a moderate level of knowledge in the areas of administrative law, labour relations and conflict resolution. You must have the ability to conduct legal and other research, and to engage in pragmatic problem solving. You should possess excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and be comfortable dealing with upset or angry individuals. Moderate to excellent writing skills are required for this position.

You should be familiar with collective bargaining/grievance processes as well as the benefits and challenges associated with unionized working environments.

Applications should be sent to:
Laura Hureau, Executive Director
Yukon Employees Union
201-2285 Second Avenue
Whitehorse, YT, Y1A 1C9
