School of Health, Education and Human Services

Ayamdigut (Whitehorse) Campus

Term Position from: December 15, 2014 to

December 15, 2017

Salary: $74,096 to $88,204 per annum

(based on 75 hours bi-weekly)

Competition #: 14.110

Initial Review Date: November 3, 2014

Credentialed by University of Regina and delivered fully at Yukon College, YNTEP is a dynamic Bachelor of Education program with an emphasis on teaching in rural and Yukon First Nation communities. We seek an individual keen to lead the program through change, build towards the future, and inspire new generations of Yukon teachers.

Coordinator duties of this position include: reviewing curriculum, building and maintaining relationships with external stakeholders (e.g., Yukon's K-12 teaching community, the Department of Education Public Schools and Yukon First Nations), and liaising with the University of Regina's Faculty of Education. Faculty advisor duties include: teaching and supervising teacher-learners as well as advising them in the areas of academic requirements and professional growth.

The successful candidate will have a master's or doctorate in Indigenous Education, Teacher Education or Indigenous Teacher Education (or related field) as well as experience teaching in the K-12 and/or post-secondary sectors, coordinating educational and/or cultural programs/projects, and developing partnerships with First Nation communities. The following will be considered assets: experience teaching pre- or post-service teachers; knowledge of Yukon First Nations; knowledge of and/or experience with distance-learning methodologies and technologies. A valid driver's license is required.
