WHITEHORSE GAL NAMED MISS CANADA

'SHE'S EVERYBODY'S SWEETHEART NOW'Dalyce Smith (of Whitehorse) last week was named Miss Canada at the annual pageant held this year in connection with centennial celebrations of London, Ontario. Pride of the Yukon, Queen of the Canadian Rockies, she has now been recognized officially from one coast to the other as Queen of them all.

After leaving Whitehorse and getting lost between here and her destination in London, Dalyce took the country by storm. Police in Edmonton and Toronto were searching and found Miss Yukon had missed her flight to London. Newspapers, radio and television made note of the search for Miss Yukon, the missing Northerner. Some were said to have feared Dan McGrew's relatives sent her on the wrong plane to London, England. However, Miss Smith's vivacious personality won out in the end, bringing wonderful credit to the Yukon.

Some say they tested Dalyce with a Geiger counter.

Jaycees are meeting Wednesday, July 13, at 8 p.m. in the Anglican Parish Hall to lay plans for a Yukon reception welcoming Miss Canada back to Whitehorse. The Whitehorse Jaycees have been asked by their national headquarters in Montreal to forward a complete release on the "Put Whitehorse on the Map" campaign which sent Dalyce out to Banff to win the title Miss Canadian Rockies and then on to London where Dalyce won the Miss Canada title, a $1,000 scholarship and the opportunity to enter the Miss America Contest to be held later this summer in Atlantic City.

In preparing for the pageant Dalyce became very conversant with the Yukon in all its various phases of industry and development. She is said to have found this to be helpful in telling those outside about the North, and in correcting false impressions of the potential wealth the Yukon has.

Many wires of congratulation have been sent to Dalyce from the Yukon and all parts of the country. Jaycees are wondering what new river or mountain range will be named after the Yukon's first winner in a beauty contest. Any offers?

Dalyce is scheduled to arrive in Whitehorse, Saturday, July 23. A gala welcome for the new-crowned, blue-eyed Queen is being arranged by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the hard working group who were instrumental in making the trip to London for the Miss Canada Pageant.

She will be welcomed at the airport by civic officials and Jaycee members and will be entertained at a cocktail party and dance later in the day. Arrangements are being made for a private family dinner at the Whitehorse Inn Blue Room and give Dalyce and her family a chance to come down to earth slowly after her return. The dance, which will be open to all, will be held from 9 to 1 at the Inn Ballroom.

The story of her win was picked up by the news services across Canada and brought a good deal of fame to this territory as well as to the brunette beauty herself. Dalyce, however, is no stranger to this sort of attention, having won the Miss Kitsilano contest a few years ago, and last winter having come back from the Banff Winter Carnival with the Queen of the Canadian Rockies title.

Poetical tribute to Dalyce was unusual recognition paid Dalyce by Maxine Dermody of T and D store on behalf of former fellow employees there: "Our heartfelt wish has just come true, you went and did what we hoped you'd do. We weren't in doubt, not for a minute. We'd seen your stuff, and knew you'd win it. This little verse is just to express, our pride and happiness."

There are many requests from all parts of Canada to meet our first Beauty Queen of the Yukon. Let's call the Yukon: "Home of Miss Canada 1955."

LIQUOR VOTE SET FOR JUNE 23

All Yukon residents, 19 years and up, will be asked to answer this question on Monday, June 23:

"Are you in favour of lowering the legal age for the consumption of alcoholic beverages from 21 years to 19 years of age?"

Commissioner James Smith announced the date and terms of the plebiscite this morning. It is believed to be the first time in Canada that underage voters will have had an opportunity to express their opinions on a question which directly affected them.

There will be no enumeration of voters, and no voters list compiled for the plebiscite, which will be conducted by Federal Returning Officer Harold J. MacDonald of Whitehorse. Instead, each voter will swear an affidavit that they are of the full age of 19 and they were ordinarily resident in the Yukon Territory on March 20, 1969. This was the date on which Yukon Territorial Council approved the idea of the plebiscite being held.

A GRIM DEATH
INDEED

Of all the accidents that can befall a person on a boat surely an explosion and fire is one of the worst. Three tons of black powder exploded on the Columbian's forward deck that fateful September day and the resulting fireball was carried the length of the ship by a downstream wind. Everyone in the immediate vicinity of the explosion would die, except for passenger Ernest Winstanley. He would be saved by his long underwear.

The Purser, Lionel Cowper had been burned over his entire body. As was the medical custom at the time of the accident, he had been wrapped in an oily blanket and given strychnine pills. In Whitehorse, when it became obvious that he was going to die, massive amounts of "opiates" were administered, but relief lasted only minutes.

WRECKAGE of the COLUMBIAN - The charred hull, which was a menace to navigation, was floated downstream a short way and abandoned in "Columbia" slough.

YUKON TERRITORY'S FIRST ALBINO MOOSE

Yukon big game outfitter Alex Van Bibber of Champagne, Yukon, took the territory's first albino moose on October 3, 1968, in the Blanchard River area of southern Yukon, just north of the BC. border and east of Mile 94 of the Haines Road.

GETS THE FIRST - Alex Van Bibber, Yukon big game outfitter, with territory's first albino moose.

Van Bibber first spotted the cow moose while on a hunt, guiding William Portman of Oklahoma City on September 30. Later he and a group of hunters from Whitehorse; John Gatey, Jr., Francis Chambers, Francis Fromme and Alex's wife, Sue Van Bibber, returned to the area and bagged the albino during the Yukon's open cow moose season, along with two other cows and a light colored bull with a horn spread of sixty-three inches.
