ALEX GAGOFF RUNS AMUCK

Three Are Killed, Fourth Is Dying

Alex Gagoff, Russian, Runs Amuck Yesterday and Wipes Out Railroad Section Crew - Most Terrible Tragedy in Local Annals Takes Place on Railroad Track Three Miles South of Whitehorse - Murderer Comes Town, Tells What He Had Done and is Taken to Jail - Believed to Be Insane.

Dead - Pat Kinslow, George Lane and Tom BokonichDying - Henry Cook

Whitehorse experienced the greatest shock of her existence yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock when it became known that four men of the five comprising the section crew of the White Pass railroad at this place had been murdered on the railroad three miles east of town, the news of the tragedy being brought to town by the murderer himself, Alex Gagoff, a Russian.

After killing the men Gagoff took their handcar, and came to town, stopping at the home of F.E. Leslie, engine hostler half a mile south of town, where he greedily drank a pitcher of water and informed them that he had killed the section men. Mr. Leslie at once telephoned the news to the depot and two minutes later Gagoff stopped the handcar near the Gobel residence and walked calmly down Front street with his rifle, a 30-30 in his hands in which he also carried a number of cartridges.

R.B. Hyett who had been in the depot when the telephone message was received, intercepted Gagoff on the street and asked to see his gun, but the latter declined to part with it. He then entered Macpherson's drug store and informed Mr. Macpherson that he had killed several men when the latter also requested that he hand over his gun which Gagoff did after some hesitancy.

In the meantime, Depot Agent Dickinson had gone for the police on the strength of Leslie's telephone message. But before the police arrived, Gagoff had left Macpherson's store and entered the White Pass Hotel where he asked Landlord Racine for his bill, he having been stopping there since his return from the outside three days before. After paying his bill, Gagoff started to the post office with two letters but was intercepted and arrested by the police.

As soon as Gagoff left Leslie's on the handcar for town, Mr. Leslie started on foot up the track and was the first to reach the scene of the tragedy although Agent Dickinson, Don Muirhead and Dr. Clarke arrived on a handcar a few moments later.

*The Weekly StarWhitehorse, Friday, Oct. 1, 1915Murder Alexander Gagoff Tried And Convicted

"You will be taken from here to the place from whence you came and kept there until Friday, the 10th day of March, 1916, when you will be taken to the place of execution and there hanged by the neck until you are dead; and may God have mercy on your soul."

The foregoing is the sentence passed by Mr. Justice Macaulay of the Territorial Court of Yukon, on Alexander Gagoff Wednesday afternoon at 3:50 o'clock and following his conviction of the murder of Henry Cook on the railroad about three miles south of Whitehorse at a few minutes before 1 o'clock on the afternoon of September, 30th, 1915, just twenty days previous to his trial and conviction.

The trial of Gagoff began at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and was concluded a few minutes before 4 in the afternoon of the same day, the court being in session less than five hours.

Judge Macaulay and Court Stenographer George Craig arrived on the steamer Dawson from Dawson at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday. Sheriff George Brimstone preceded them by nearly a week to prepare and draw a jury venue and Crown Prosecutor J. P. Smith arrived on Sunday on the steamer Casca from Dawson.

*The Weekly Star - Friday, Oct. 22, 1915Gagoff Hanged This Morning

To the extent that the taking of one life would atone for four others, the murder of the railroad section crew three miles south of town on the 30th of last September was expiated this morning when, promptly at 7 o'clock, Murderer Alex Gagoff was launched into eternity, being hanged by the neck until dead as the sentence of the court decreed he should be.

With firm, unflinching steps, marching between two stalwart members of the R.N.W.M.P., Gagoff mounted the steps of the scaffold and took his place on the trap door. Official Hangman Ellis, who came all the way from Ottawa to perform the work of less than a dozen seconds, adjusted the black cap. Sheriff George Brimstone then asked the man who stood on the threshold of death if he had anything to say. The question was repeated in the Russian language by Interpreter Zarnowsky. Gagoff answered in Russian, "No." In a clear voice Sheriff Brimstone said, "May God have mercy on your soul". Immediately Hangman Ellis sprung the trap and Alex Gagoff was launched to his death. The drop was 7 feet, 10 inches. His neck was broken and death was instantaneous. Dr. Clarke kept his and on the pulse, which ceased to beat in 14 minutes. The body was then cut down and placed in a box.

Captain Bell, acting coroner, impanelled the following jury: Wm. Drury, C.H. Johnston, S. Coulter, F.E. Harbottle, F. Langholz and Al Stewart, who viewed the body, returning a verdict that the deceased came to his death by hanging in accordance with the decree of the court. The body was buried immediately beneath the scaffold.

Gagoff slept well through all of last night. He awoke at 5 this morning and later ate a breakfast consisting of two eggs, toast and a cup of coffee.

Those who had not seen Gagoff since his trial and conviction last fall were surprised at his appearance this morning, he having fallen off fully fifty pounds during his confinement.

Jade chunk may set world record Yukon find could be worth $5.8 billion

Whitehorse Star, July 8, 1992

High on a snowy mountain top, some 145 kilometres north of Watson Lake, part of a large outcrop of rock gleams green - jade green.

This shining, embedded nugget is expected to set a new Guinness world record for the largest piece of nephrite jade.

It's been measured conservatively at 577 metric tonnes by Dennis Ouellette, a staff geologist with Northern Affairs in Whitehorse.

The current world record is held by China, where a 264-tonne, or 291-Imperial ton, piece of jade was discovered in March, 1990....

MAJOR FIND - Northern Affairs geologist Dennis Ouellette holds about 29 kilograms of nephrite jade found north of Watson Lake. Ouellette has estimated the find to weigh 577 metric tonnes, making it a contender for the Guinness Book of World Records. STAR photo

MADE IT – Yukoner Martyn Williams, right, completed the international North Pole Expedition is six weeks along with Mike McDowell and brothers Sju and Simen Modre, at left.

CITY RESIDENT MAKES POLAR HISTORY

Whitehorse resident Martyn Williams has become the first Canadian to reach both poles of the earth using only skis and a small dog team.

Williams, 44 and his three companions on the International north Pole Expedition were picked up Saturday after six grueling weeks of fighting severe temperatures, driving winds, and tough, unpredictable sea ice.

All four members of the group are South Pole veterans. Australian Mike McDowell 44, accompanied Williams to the South Pole in 1990. Norwegian brothers Sjur, 27, and Simen Modre, 29, traveled to the South Pole in 1991.

The group is now resting at the advance base on Ellesmere Island before they return tonight to Resolute Bay, N.W.T.

Tough terrain slowed progress for the first few weeks. However, the expedition traveled more than 25 kilometres a day in the last couple of weeks to make up for last time.

They had to reach the pole by May 12. After that date, warming temperatures cause fog and broken ice, which makes air pick-up impossible.

The trip has been much tougher than expected, Pangman said. Temperatures have averaged about -35° and driving winds have caused frostbite. A team of eight dogs has been more of a hindrance than a help. Pangman said.

*1901 News from the Whitehorse StarFive New Boats
To Be Built By The W.P. & Y. Route

150 To 200 Ship Carpenters Will Be Employed In The Work

Mr. G.C. Mellott is authority for the statement that the management of the W.P. & Y. Route have purchased five steamers from the Canadian Pacific, used formerly on the Stickene river by the C.P.R., and that they will be brought to Skagway and taken down for shipment to White Horse where they will be rebuilt with a view to the needs of river navigation. Hotline & Co., of Seattle, have the contract for the construction of the new boats and will have from 150 to 200 ship carpenters here inside of a month to commence active operations. The boats purchased by the W.P. & Y. Route are the Ogilvie, Hamlin and McConnell, which are now at Wrangel, the Dawson, now on the ways at Vancouver, which, though completed has never been launched and the Walsh, which has been lying in the Fraser river since the failure of the route up the stickene river to the Yukon. The purchase of these boats give the W.P. & Y. Route absolute control of fifteen first class river steamers, and will practically place the whole of next season's transportation business to the interior in its hands.

Captain Sanborn will superintend the construction and see that they are put up in accordance with contract. The contract calls for their completion by 1st of June next. A new freight tariff sheet will also be issued in a short time, which will do away with the present system of charges by weight and measurement, and in lieu thereof all freight will be classified and rated according to the grade and quality of the goods. Among contemplated improvements for the rapid handling of freight a large derrick will be erected on the wharf at White Horse for loading and unloading machinery and other heavy material. If it becomes necessary another addition to the immense warehouse will also be built, and as soon as the ground thaws sufficiently to allow work to be commenced an electric light plant will be installed for the purpose of lighting the depot, wharf and warehouses.
