HELP WANTED

YAWC

YUKON ABORIGINAL
WOMEN'S COUNCIL

We are looking for a creative and experienced Executive Director to join our growing team.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Reporting to the Board of Directors, this leadership position is responsible for overseeing the administration, programs, and strategic plans of the organization and implementing policies and procedures consistent with the mission, vision, goals, and objectives of YAWC.

Qualifications

Bachelor's Degree in business administration or related field. Previous experience in a leadership role in a multi-cultural environment with an emphasis on First Nation's culture. Significant experience managing budgets and supervising a team is essential. An equivalent combination of education, training, or experience will be considered.

As per the YAWC mandate, every effort is made to employ Indigenous women and gender-diverse people from Yukon and northern British Columbia. Job suitability is assessed with this priority in mind, along with education and experience.

YAWC is a non-profit organization with a mission of "Working towards a resilient and robust community by empowering Indigenous women, gender-diverse people, and their families through culturally inclusive advocacy, healing, learning, and sharing while celebrating success." For a job description, visit www.yawc.ca/employment.

The salary is $40 - $45 per hour based on experience. The position is full-time and located in Whitehorse.

How to Apply

Please send a cover letter, resume, and three references to Claudia Riveros, Executive Director at director@yawc.ca. The position will remain open until filled.

Please direct questions to Claudia by email or phone at 867-667-6162 x1007. We want to thank everyone who applies but only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

GRAND PALACE HOTEL

ANOTHER FIRST-CLASS HOSTELRY OPENS ITS FRIENDLY DOORS TO THE TRAVELLER

The fine three-story building that has been so rapidly rushed to completion by Mr. Racine, on Front Street, opposite the new post office building, opens its doors today for the reception of guests, and will be known as the Grand Palace Hotel. This immense building is admirably situated at the highest point on the lake side of the street, and commands a grand view of the lake and surrounding country. The guests' rooms on the second and third floors, about 20, are all large, well lighted and ventilated, high ceilings, with new and clean furnishings throughout. The floors are double-boarded, inlaid with building paper, as are also the walls, which will make the building a very warm and comfortable one during the most severe weather.

The hotel proper will be under the management of mesdames Lane and Taylor, who have, during the past three months, made a splendid reputation as hostesses by the first-class manner in which they have conducted the Palace Hotel of this city. The traveller who has once been a guest at the latter house will surely find his way to the Grand Palace on his return to Bennett and learns that these ladies are in charge of the place.

The bar in connection with the hotel is controlled by R.B. Alverson & Co., well known to a great majority of our citizens, and their reputation is a good guarantee that nothing but the best of goods in their line, served by the most dexterous and polite mixologists, will be offered to the patrons of this department.

With such people in all departments of the new hotel it cannot fail to become a very popular house.

A CONSIGNMENT
OF HOCKEY JUNK

It's not often a local hockey team has a chance to vie for the Stanley Cup, but it happened one time in Yukon history and the results of the contest make it probable that it will never happen again.

Hockey was big in the Klondike
in 1904, and the competition so fierce that local promoters of the sport were looking for bigger and greater challenges. With the typical Yukon "if you're going to go for it,
you might as well go for the top"
attitude, Dawson organizers wrote to Ottawa challenging the World
Champions to a Stanley Cup duel.
The challenge was accepted.

The Klondike team sallied forth from Dawson to do battle with the Ottawa Invincibles, also known as "The Silver Seven."

Ottawa Hockey Team Won
First Game of Series by Score
of 9-2. The Dawson Hockey team went down in overwhelming defeat before the Ottawa Invincibles by a score of 23-2
in the second.

DAWSON MAN WINS
TOUGHEST MAN TITLE

B.C. Teenager Takes Heavyweight Crown
by Chuck Tobin
Star Reporter

The Dawson City man who represented Canada in boxing
at the 1982 Commonwealth Games in Brisbane, Australia was back in the ring Thursday night in front of 1,200 to 1,500 fans at Takhini Arena.

George Mason, 32, earned the title as the Toughest man in the Yukon and $1,000 in the 70 kg (154 lbs) and under category.

Shane Sutcliffe of Nanaimo, B. C. won the heavy weight category of 82 kg (180 lbs) and over and Jeff MacPheat of Whitehorse took home the purse in the middle weight division.

The event was billed as the Toughest Man in the Yukon
competition with invitations going out to street fighters, bikers, martial artists, brawlers and bouncers.

It was actually an amateur boxing card where conditioning
an experience proved more valuable than braun.

Kevin White, a 32-year-old Whitehorse man who challenged 16-year-old Shane Sutcliffe for the heavyweight title, voluntarily withdrew after two rounds because he simply ran out of gas.

"When I sat down after the second round I thought I was in there for about 10 minutes," said White of the minute-and-a-half round. "I was too tired to throw

LIQUOR VOTE SET FOR JUNE 23

All Yukon residents, 19 years and up, will be asked to answer this question on Monday, June 23:

"Are you in favour of lowering the legal age for the consumption of alcoholic beverages from 21 years to 19 years of age?"

Commissioner James Smith announced
the date and terms of the plebiscite this morning. It is believed to be the first time in Canada that underage voters will have had an opportunity to express their opinions on a question which directly affected
them.

There will be no enumeration of voters,
and no voters list compiled for the plebiscite, which will be conducted by Federal Returning Officer Harold J. Mac-Donald of Whitehorse. Instead, each voter will swear an affidavit that they are of the full age of 19 and they were ordinarily resident in the Yukon Territory on March 20, 1969. This was the date on which Yukon Territorial Council approved the idea of the plebiscite being held.
