YUKON'S GREAT SHOWING

Yukon Territory's contribution to the Empire and Allied cause in this war is nothing short of magnificent.

Despite the fact the region is remote and the people are engaged in struggling against primitive and exceptionally obdurate and severe conditions in pioneering, they have more than held their own in the war game.

Between four and five hundred men have gone from this territory direct to the war, meaning practically ten per cent of the population of Yukon are under arms in Europe. Were the whole of the Dominion, with its eight million people, to contribute in like proportion to Yukon there would be 800,000 men, or just twice as many enlisted from Canada today as there are. ...

The generous and patriotic spirit of Yukon deserves to be known throughout the Empire and Allied realm. If all the Empire were contributing in like proportion in men and money the assembled wealth and armies today would be far greater than they are. But these matters will adjust themselves.

Yukoners will continue to do a mighty share and uphold the tradition that the sons and daughters of the North are excelled by none in loyalty to the nation and to humanity.

PERCY DE WOLFE
OF THE NORTH

Dawson News, April 28, 1919: Percy De Wolfe, the lower Yukon River mail carrier, of the Dawson-Eagle route, broke through the ice while traveling the river Saturday and had a thrilling experience in which he barely escaped losing his life.

Two fine horses, valued at $600, which he was driving, went through the ice at the same time, and were lost in the river.

The accident occurred near the Halfway House, between Dawson and Fortymile. De Wolfe's home is at the Halfway House. When a mile below the place he was jogging along easily, and started to turn from the track he was following to a winter trail. He had gone but a little way from his old course when there was a crash of the ice, and the horses went through. He was near the bank of the river, and away from the swift water.

The sleigh remained on the edge of the unbroken ice, with a single tree hanging over. De Wolfe attempted to get the head of the horses above the ice, but the first he knew he was in the water in the midst of the animals. The horses, immediately on going through the ice, began pawing desperately, and were encumbered by their harness. Percy, in his effort to get out, was grazed down the back by the foot of one of the horses, and his overalls torn open near the waist. Had a hoof struck him he would have been forced down, and no doubt would have passed under the animal and then under the ice.

Fortunately he came up close to the overhanging single tree. He was plunging up and down in the water, in the grim attempt to save himself. It was almost impossible to get hold of the edge of the ice and crawl out, but he reached for the single tree. Two grasps were made with no avail. The third time was the charm. He got a good grip on the object and gradually lifted himself from the chilly waters.

By the time Percy had rescued himself the horses had disappeared. Although soaked to the skin from head to foot, he removed the mail to the shore, and left it in a safe position. He then proceeded to his home a mile above the scene of the accident. The sleigh was recovered later.

De Wolfe got here yesterday with a dog team and the mail. The horses which he lost were uninsured. He states it will be necessary to get another team to carry on his mail business next season. De Wolfe has traveled the Yukon between Dawson and Eagle as mail carrier for years, never daunted by cold, bad ice, storm or other adversities. Several times before this he has fallen through the ice, and has lost horses and sleighs, but despite the great perils he has encountered, he seems to bear a charmed life, and has emerged unscratched each time. Winter after winter he has forged through the most severe of arctic temperatures, and always has made his destination on time. The moderate sum he receives as compensation for carrying on this dangerous route is a pittance compared to that received on some other routes where the risks comparatively are nil. His losses in this experience wipes out the profits of months of hard labor.

IRON MAN – Percy De Wolfe continued on the job until 1950 and he died a year later. During his 40 year career he developed a reputation for stamina and dependability that was never tarnished no matter how cold or precarious the weather. In his honour the Percy De Wolfe Memorial Mail Run was organized by the Klondike Visitors Association in 1977, this proved so popular that it graduated to being a full blown race in 1981 and is now one of the qualifying events for the famous Iditarod.

MAKING A DELIVERY – Percy De Wolfe ca. 1930 with horse drawn sleigh De Wolfe became known as the "Iron Man of the North" due to the 1919 adventure and other exploits during his mail carrying career. De Wolfe, a Nova Scotian by birth, arrived in the territory during the Gold Rush of '98, and began his career as mail carrier in 1910. Depending on the season, mail and freight was carried by dog or horse drawn sleigh, or boat and the 340 kilometre round trip journey between Eagle, Alaska and Dawson City, Yukon took 8 days.
